Foreword

The valuable Collection of Roman, English and Foreign Coins, described and profusely illustrated in the present and subsequent Catalogues, was formed during the last twenty years by J. C. S. Rashleigh, Esq., M.A., M.D., of Throwleigh, Okehampton (Devon), well-known to English Collectors and whose portrait, taken several years ago, we are pleased to reproduce below.

The famous Rashleigh Collection of English Coins, sold by auction in 1909, was mainly formed by Dr. J. C. S. Rashleigh's grandfather, Mr. Jonathan Rashleigh, and sold by his uncle, Mr. Evelyn William Rashleigh.

Dr. J. C. S. Rashleigh was elected a Fellow of the Royal Numismatic Society of London in 1935. He purchased his first coins at random in the autumn of 1934, and attended his first auction sale of coins in January, 1935.

Although he modestly claims that he started collecting coins merely as a hobby and to increase his interest in, and knowledge of, history, yet the doing so involves some special qualifications, an intuitive sense of the importance and value of coins, a confidence in one's own judgment of their authenticity, and ample means to take advantage of the opportunities offered to acquire specimens.

Leaving alone Greek coins, of which he possessed but a few, and also the early English, he concentrated his interest in forming an exceptionally fine series of Roman and Byzantine gold coins, numbering over 300, Roman Republican and Imperial silver, as well as English Regal Gold and Silver.

Collectors will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain fine specimens of many rarities seldom met with, a few of which are specially mentioned below.

- Lots 14. Claudius and Agrippina.
- 15. Antonia.
- 20. Otho.
- 21. Vitellius
- 32. Nerva.
- 59. Pertinax.
- 61. Septimius Severus and Julia Domna.
- 64. Caracalla and Geta.
- 65 and 66. Macrinus.
- 70. Uranius Antoninus.
- 73. Philip Senior.
- 74. Otacilia.
- 83. Postumus.
- 84. Aurelian
- 85. Tacitus.
- 86 and 87. Probus.
- 88. Carus.
- 89. Carinus.
- 101. Severus II.
- 134. Eugenius.
- 140. Galla Placidia.
- 141. Johannes.
- 151. Romulus Augustulus.

In the Silver series there are some coins which should also prove very attractive, as the EID. MAR. of Brutus, the C. Antonius rev. PONTIFEX several fine Julius Caesar and Augustus, Plotina, Marciana, Matidia, Didius Julianus, Manlia Scantilla, Didia Clara, Pescennius Niger, etc.

The Byzantine series presents also much interest and includes many beautiful pieces.

One always regrets seeing a good collection dispersed, yet one is glad for opportunities given to Collectors of filling gaps in their Cabinets, and so Dr. Rashleigh is doing them no unimportant service.

We would wish, in closing, to praise Dr. Rashleigh's amiable personal character and his uniform courtesy and consideration of others, and to express our sincere wish that the result of the Sale of his Collection may reward Mrs. Rashleigh for all the labour, skill and patience her husband displayed in forming it.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is
